No meetings over the summer.

The next meeting is Sept 20. The topic will be a demo of an android based media TV box. It's supposed to turn any HDTV into a smartTV. It may also let you cut the cable (but not internet).

In the news: Coming soon! Emojis -- the movie. I wonder if it's animated?

A customer has won a $10K judgment from Microsoft over unauthorized Windows 10 upgrade. The case was in a CA small claims court and Microsoft has decided not to appeal.

A U.S. court ruled that the FBI can hack into a computer without a warrant, since an IP address is public information. The case involved child porn.

Have a Great Summer & see you in September.
